

23/8/16 John Lloyd Young @ Sterling's Upstairs at The Federal, CA

John Lloyd Young returns for his 15th consecutive show at Sterling's Upstairs at The Federal. Young holds the record at Sterling's for selling out many of his shows within 20 minutes of them posting!

Hurry! There is still time to experience this phenomenal Tony award winning singer in action. Young recently collaborated with his Grammy nominated Music Director the multi talented Tommy Faragher on some pretty awesome original songs, that you just do not want to miss! Young will be performing originals songs as well as selections from his CD "My Turn." Young and Faragher have great stage chemistry and their often amusing banter adds to the fun of the show. You just never know what is going to happen when Young takes the stage.

An added bonus is the up close and personal post show meet and greet; that makes this entertainer one of the main stops on your end of summer concerts going. Come join John Lloyd Young in one of L.A's most popular supper clubs. See ya there! By Michele Black
