25/1/17 JLY attends Arts
Advocacy Day @State Capitol,
Des Moines, IA

A message from Leon Kuehner, IAAE Executive Director

Hello Arts Advocates:

I am pleased to announce the 4th annual Arts Advocacy Day will be held at the State Capitol in Des Moines on Wednesday, January 25, 2017. There are many new legislators and leadership changes in the 2017 legislature so the need to advocate for arts education is more important than ever. This year we will be joined by Turnaround Artist John Lloyd Young, Tony Award winning actor from “Jersey Boys”.

The schedule will be similar to past years:

8:00 a.m. Orientation for advocates at State Capitol

8:30 a.m. Attendance at opening of Iowa House (music by Findley Elementary Choir)

9:00 a.m. Attendance at opening of Iowa Senate (music by Findley Elementary Choir)

9:15 – Noon: Visits to Iowa legislators

Noon: Lunch served at State Capitol: Awards presentation to Senator Herman Quirnbach and Rep; Greg Forristall. Performance by student break dancers from Des Moines who performed at the White House this past spring. Comments from John Lloyd Young.

1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. : Visits to assigned legislators (if needed) possible House & Senate Education Committee testimony

You may register by visiting the Iowa Alliance for Arts Education website:

“Register for Arts Advocacy Day”.

If you know if anyone else who would be interested in being an arts advocate, please pass this information on to them.

I will sending out final information on Advocacy Day early in January.

Thank you so much for your support of arts education in Iowa!

21/09-16/10/16 John Lloyd Young in For The Record: Scorsese @ The Wallis, CA

Performers JOHN LLOYD YOUNG, Carmen Cusack, Pia Toscano and B. Slade sign on for Wallis Production inspired by Martin Scorsese films.

The cast is set for the new production of For The Record: Scorsese – American Crime Requiem at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. The show will run from Sept. 21-Oct. 16 with opening night set for Sept. 29.

This new show – the brainchild of For The Record creators Anderson Davis and Shane Scheel – is co-produced by The Wallis and Ad Astra Live, and made possible by the support of David C. Bohnett.

Tony Award-winner John Lloyd Young (Broadway's Jersey Boys), Tony nominee Carmen Cusack (Broadway's Bright Star), Pia Toscano (American Idol), Lindsey Gort (The Carrie Diaries), Grammy nominee B. Slade, and For The Record alums James Byous, Dionne Gipson, Olivia Harris, Douglas Kreeger (Broadway's Les Miserables), Justin Mortelliti, Jason Paige (Pokemon) and Zak Resnick (Broadway's Mamma Mia) will take the stage at The Wallis as part of the cast of For The Record: Scorsese – American Crime Requiem.

The acclaimed For The Record series is a unique, genre-bending form of live entertainment turning the soundtracks of iconic filmmakers into thrilling immersive theatrical concerts. American Crime Requiem explores over 40 years of Scorsese's storytelling, his passion for music and the people who make it. The show stars an eclectic mix of artists from the worlds of music, stage and screen performing an epic setlist from GoodFellas, Casino, The Departed, The Wolf of Wall Street and more. Part rock concert, part drama, part nightclub. All LEGENDARY!

"A unique post-modern cabaret that is taking the city by storm." – Vanity Fair

23/8/16 John Lloyd Young @ Sterling's Upstairs at The Federal, CA

John Lloyd Young returns for his 15th consecutive show at Sterling's Upstairs at The Federal. Young holds the record at Sterling's for selling out many of his shows within 20 minutes of them posting!

Hurry! There is still time to experience this phenomenal Tony award winning singer in action. Young recently collaborated with his Grammy nominated Music Director the multi talented Tommy Faragher on some pretty awesome original songs, that you just do not want to miss! Young will be performing original songs as well as selections from his CD "My Turn." Young and Faragher have great stage chemistry and their often amusing banter adds to the fun of the show. You just never know what is going to happen when Young takes the stage.

An added bonus is the up close and personal post show meet and greet; that makes this entertainer one of the main stops on your end of summer concerts going. Come join John Lloyd Young in one of L.A's most popular supper clubs. See ya there! By Michele Black
